

Anti-Bullying

We want every child to feel safe at school. Bullying is a very clear infringement of our Golden Rules and we do not tolerate any form of bullying in school or out of school where it involves children attending Queen's Crescent School. A copy of our Anti-Bullying policy can be downloaded here.

Queen's Crescent School achieved the anti-bullying 'BIG' (Bullying Intervention Group) award in July 2014.

What is bullying?

Bullying and friendship issues are different things. The Department for Education define bullying as "behaviour by an individual or group, repeated over time, that intentionally hurts another individual or group either physically or emotionally".

What can you do about bullying?

- Remember that you are special and that no-one deserves to be bullied
- If you are being bullied, tell an adult immediately, you will be listened to and supported
- If you are worried about someone else being bullied, tell an adult.
