Explanatory notes

Data stage

Data will be published as unvalidated, validated and final. A footnote on the dashboard is used to specify which data are contained in the PDF.

Missing data

There are three explanations for why data are missing from the dashboard:

- Data are not available.
- Data are zero.
- Data have been suppressed due to small pupil numbers.

Information on the reasons behind missing data may be found later in this document or in the interactive version of the report where it can be accessed via the question mark symbol (?)

National levels

The national level for the attainment and closing the gap sections includes maintained state nursery, primary, middle and secondary schools (including academies), along with city technology colleges and special schools. The national level for attendance includes state nursery, primary, middle and secondary schools (including academies) and city technology colleges, but special schools are excluded.

Quintiles

Quintiles are used to split a dataset into five groups each representing 20% of the data. For the "all schools" measure the quintiles are constructed using by ranking the results across all schools. For the "similar schools" measure the quintiles are constructed by ranking the unique results within the grouping. The groups are not necessarily evenly split as there may be several identical scores in the dataset and these would be placed in the same quintile. The "all schools" measure allows the user to view where, amongst all the maintained schools in England that offer the key stage of interest, the school of interest is ranked. The relative position of the school can be viewed as its quintile position, for example, schools in the "middle 20%" are performing around average. The "similar schools" measure shows the user where, amongst the results of the schools in the group, the result of the school is ranked. For a more detailed breakdown of these measures please see the guidance document.

All schools

The "all schools" measure allows the user to view where the school of interest is ranked, compared with all the maintained schools in England that offer the key stage of interest. The relative position of the school can be viewed as its quintile position, for example, schools in the "middle 20%" are performing around average. For a more detailed breakdown of this measure please see the guidance document.

Similar schools

Schools are grouped together as similar based upon the prior attainment of pupils in the cohort. Each school has its own group of similar schools for each measure shown on the Dashboard. For Key Stage 4, the prior attainment of pupils at Key Stage 2 is used to predict the outcomes for these pupils at Key Stage 4, and the 54 schools with the most similar prediction are selected. The 54 schools selected are likely to differ for each measure, for example, for mathematics the schools identified may differ from English. For Key Stage 2, the prior attainment at Key Stage 1 is used, and the most similar 124 schools are chosen. There is no similar school comparison for Key Stage 1 data.

Attainment

Key Stage 2 attainment measures are presented as the percentage of pupils achieving National Curriculum Level 4 or above in English grammar, punctuation and spelling, reading, writing and mathematics. It is expected that pupils will reach at least Level 4 by the end of Key Stage 2. Data for 2011 and 2012 are not available for English grammar, punctuation and spelling as the measure did not exist.

Expected progress

Expected progress refers to the percentage of pupils progressing through two National Curriculum levels between the end of Key Stage 1 and the end of Key Stage 2, with data presented for reading, writing and mathematics. In 2011, the measure of expected progress was changed to include teacher assessments where no appropriate test data are available. Data for 2011 are not available for reading and writing as this measure did not exist.

Attendance

Attendance data relate to the percentage of sessions (mornings and afternoons are classified as sessions) attended by the whole school, not just the key stage. Attendance is calculated as (100% - percentage of overall absence).

Closing the gap

Closing the gap measures compare the gap between the performance of pupils in the disadvantaged pupil category and those in the other pupil category. Disadvantaged pupils are those pupils who were eligible for free school meals at any point during the last six years and children looked after (for example, in the continuous care of the local authority for at least six months). Data for 2011 and 2012 are not available for reading and writing as this measure did not exist.
