L.O. to write a review of Loves Labours Won for our school website

Majidah

On Thursday 30th April year 5 and 6 had the pleasure of watching the live schools broadcast of Loves Labour's Won , performed by the acclaimed Royal Shakespeare company. The play was amazingly excellent and I would rate the play 5 stars out of five Loves Labours Won is Shakespeare's most famous comedy play with a few sad scenes. Loves Labours Won is a complicated love story with funny and dramatic scenes. Beatrice and Benedict are always throwing insults however deep inside they are in love. Meanwhile Hero and Claudio admit they love each other while Claudio's mean evil brother Don John is causing mischief to end Hero's and Claudio's wedding forever.

Loves Labours Won has two names, the other name is Much Ado Nothing. The play has two names because some people think its called Loves Labours Won and some other people on the other hand think it is called Much Ado About Nothing. My favourite scene was when Hero and Claudio were married and also when Beatrice and Benedict got married too and at the end there was a double wedding. I would recommend this fantastic play of mixed emotions whether it is sad or happy!
