WORLD BOOK DAY – 9th March 2015

We asked: DID YOU ENJOY COMING IN FOR THE AFTERNOON ON WORLD BOOK DAY?

100% said YES and

- I enjoyed being with my child during their school day and taking part in the activity.
- I thoroughly enjoyed getting messy and creative.
- It was brilliant, but more time was needed.
- The time went really quickly.
- On World Book day I would have expected reading.

We asked: DO YOU THINK THE ACITIVITIES THAT WERE PUT IN PLACE WERE USEFUL TO YOUR CHILD'S LEARNING?

You said:

- Yes, it was fun and nice to be creative.
- It seemed like quite a few children struggled and could of done with some adult support.
- It was fun, and the book idea to encourage out of school reading all helps with their learning.
- Yes, working as a team, taking turns, using their Maths & English.
- It was a good chance for the children to get creative and they also enjoyed their parents coming in.
- Yes, any parent involvement is beneficial.
- Not sure.
- Not sure, as we were creating a board game. We both certainly enjoyed it, just not sure how this linked in to what they were learning.
- A small classroom and then adding Parents to it made it chaotic and stressful, perhaps more thought required for next time.

We asked: WOULD YOU LIKE MORE SESSIONS LIKE THIS IN FUTURE?

100% said YES and

- I would, as the idea of having parents coming into school to do activities is a great idea, just more thought and space needed next time.
- Parent involvement to support the children is good.
- One per term.
