RECEPTION AREA

We are having a new reception refurbishment over the October half term. Hopefully the reception will be completed shortly after we return after the half term, and will not disrupt school too much.

If you child is absent from school

Please can you telephone the main school number to report your child absent and leave a message when prompted to do so (01226 790471). Please do not leave a message on the text message service we have in school.
