Marginalisation

- Some people tease a person if they happen to have a very clear disability, like this child in the wheelchair.
- Some people think it's OK to be nasty to people with black skin, like this girl.
- Some people tease others who wear glasses.
- Some people call names to people with Asian heritage, like China or Japan.
- Some people think it's OK to call a person who is overweight nasty names.
- Some people don't like others who have a heritage from the sub-continent, such as Pakistan or India.
- Some people would tease someone who has little or no hair, especially a child , and even more especially a little girl.
- Some people have bad opinions about people who wear distinct cultural dress, such as this lady wearing a Muslim burka.
- Some people would not like to be around others who have a birth condition, such as this little girls, who was born with Down's syndrome.
- -Some people make fun of the elderly .

British Values

- Democracy
- The rule of law
- Individual liberty
- Mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs

We all have the right to worship how we want to. There are many religions in the world, and, at St Joseph's, we celebrate the diversity of religions in the world around us.

my name is Lucas

- I originate from China. My Mum was born in Australia and my Dad was born in Hong Kong. My Mum Loved holding animals and my Dad loved helping out!
- The part of Australia my Mum was born in was Queensland, and it is boiling hot there!
- Did you know that in china, they eat a lot of seafood?

My name is Ryan Shimwe Jacobs

- I was born in Leeds. My Mum was born in Kigali, the capital city of a small country in Africa named Rwanda.
- My Dad was born in the same country but he was born in a beautiful city called Byumba. Rwanda is a beautiful and very warm place but in some parts it isn't very nice as there are many poor people. But I still want to go there because I haven't been yet.

My name is Klaudia

- What is it like to be deaf? I don't like to be deaf but I was born with impaired hearing. I can't hear everybody when they are talking to me and can't understand what they are saying.
- Lessons are OK but I need to work harder to listen to the teacher.
- It doesn't stop me from doing anything though. I can play out, go swimming, ride a bike and I am a blue belt in karate.
- I wear special hearing aids to help me hear and a radio aid to wear in class so I can hear the teacher.
