4th November 2015

Dear Parents / Guardians

Remembrance Day as you know is on the 11th November and to mark this special day we are asking the children to come dressed in Red or in combat gear. I know some of them have military style costumes which they wear with pride and these will also be welcome on that day. We will be honouring the 2 minutes silence with the children and of course poppies and an assortment of remembrance items, such as snap bracelets and rulers are on sale for £1.00.

It is a busy week with the Children in Need day following on Friday. As you are aware on this day, children can come dressed in yellow or spotty outfits. Once again wristbands, headbands and keyrings will be on sale for the children priced at between £1.50 and £2.50 for the headbands.

Finally, in light of this busy week, we have decided to move Diwali Day to the week beginning November 23rd, when Sunita Patel will be visiting school to explore Hindu faith and Indian culture.

Yours sincerely
