

Values-based Education

Civic Values

These values and skills are necessary for engaged and responsible citizenship.

responsibility, community, teamwork, respect, peace, empathy, thoughtfulness

Moral Values

These values enable us to respond well to situations in any area of experience.

courage, self-control, compassion, thankfulness, humility, truth, fairness

Performance Values

Behavioural skills and psychological capacities that enable us to put our character habits into practice.

resilience, aspiration, forgiveness, hope, joy,

Christian Context

hospitality, community, compassion, faith, humility, love

Good Sense (Phronesis)

Knowing what to want and what not to want when the demands of two or more values collide. Good sense presupposes the possession of other intellectual values such as curiosity and critical thinking.

Flourishing Individuals and Society