

School Prayer

Just as many hands build a house, so many hearts build a school.

Help us to look after each other, to take care of each other, to respect each other and be polite to each other, as no matter what we look like or where we come from, we are all part of Elm Park Primary.