

Numicon

Numicon is structured, multi-sensory approach to teaching maths and was used as a specific intervention programme to boost the numeracy skills of a group of selected children in Year 5 from November 2013 to May 2014.

The group responded positively to the range of visual and kinaesthetic resources and we are considering using this programme to support maths teaching across the Foundation Stage and Key Stage 1.