

Pupil Premium

The information below is included on our website as a requirement by Ofsted. If you need any information further to this, or on any other aspect of information provided on the website, please feel free to contact the school office.

The 2015/16 Pupil Premium Budget £345 840

38% of the school population

Some examples of how funding will be spent this year:-

An Assistant Learning Mentor to focus on improving attendance and work with vulnerable groups/individuals using Theraplay and Positive Play.

Additional teacher and additional HLTAs to ensure intervention is successful and impacts on children's learning.

The new appointment of an Assistant Headteacher to focus on leading inclusion.

Music pathway to continue to provide musical experience and opportunity to allow children to achieve in something non-academic.

Ijam (IPad lessons) for all pupils to engage them in projects using the IPad.

Access and subsidy to a wide range of after school activities, holiday clubs and residential visits.

Investment in ICT resources and training to engage reluctant readers (Purchasing iPads for each year group.)

Additional speech and language therapy support.

An additional Y6 Booster teacher.

First language support teaching assistants.

Rewards for 100% attendance and Good to be Green behaviour.

Purchase story sacks for families to loan to promote reading in Foundation Stage.

The 2016/17 Pupil Premium Budget £319 440 840

36% of the school population

Some examples of how funding will be spent this year:-

An Assistant Learning Mentor to focus on improving attendance and work with vulnerable groups/individuals using Theraplay and Positive Play.

Additional teacher and additional HLTAs to ensure intervention is successful and impacts on children's learning.

Music pathway to continue to provide musical experience and opportunity to allow children to achieve in something non-academic.

Ijam (IPad lessons) for all pupils to engage them in projects using the IPad.

Access and subsidy to a wide range of after school activities, holiday clubs and residential visits.

Investment in ICT training to engage reluctant readers

Additional speech and language therapy support.

An additional Y6 Booster teacher.

First language support teaching assistants.

Rewards for 100% attendance and Good to be Green behaviour.

Purchase story sacks for families to loan to promote reading in Foundation Stage. Training courses for families to develop the use of Story Sacks in the home.