The Dreadful Day.

Remember Just when I finished ^{my final} ~~his final~~ feast, with his ^{my} ~~his~~ ~~my~~ friends, I walked out with my friends to the garden, which reminded me of where the enemies found us.

The Romans came fully geared with swords, spears, torches and sticks. They were so frightening that half of my friends ran away. In a flash, Judas stood there in front of me. He crept up to me and kissed me on the cheek and shouted "This is the man you want." "Arrest him," came another scream from Judas.

I

Jesus looked hard into Judas' eyes. I knew that he was ashamed of him self and that he might commit suicide. I felt melancholy and aghast when they ^{arrested} ~~charged~~ at me and pushed me down onto the concrete, hard, stoney ground. Peter ~~pullout~~ pulled out his iron sword and swung heavily towards the romans.

"Please not, don't hurt anyone," I ^{pleaded} pleaded. Jesus. Peter stopped swinging and slid his sword away. He was aghast.

The romans dragged me to the kingdom and questioned me all night. The trial went very bad and they didn't believe me, but I said nothing. They ^{whipped} ~~whipped~~ me and stripped me. They burnt my clothes and made me wear a robe. They jammed a crown with thorns on my head and let the blood drip onto the floor. Everyone made ^{fun} ~~fun~~ of me except the disipals that used to be my friends.

My ^{My} ~~his~~ entire body hurt, ^{his} ~~his~~ heart was ^{going} ~~going~~ to break, the organs inside were ^{going} ~~going~~ to crush. I told the 2 men beside me that you didn't need to worry. God is with us.

The next day, I ^{was} ~~hung~~ ^{was} ~~pierced~~ on the cross dead. All my friend felt lonely and sad. What were they going to do without me? Suddenly, I rose up from the dark tomb and I was alive. I told these people to meet ^{me} ~~me~~ near the sea.

That is where the adventure began.

★ Great language choices - very precise

Next, use further subordinate clause openers.
