

Phil Cadd- Parent Governor

My family became involved with Rodney House when my son, Joshua was accepted at the school. Joshua was diagnosed with Classic Autism and global delay, and we feel the work done with him at such an early age was instrumental in his wonderful development we see today. I was asked to consider being a parent governor and have enjoyed every minute of the four years on the governing body.

