Literacy mat

Basics:

- ❑ Every sentence must start with a capital letter.
- ❑ Every sentence must finish with some form of punctuation: .?!
- ❑ Proper nouns need capital letters. These are unique people, places or things e.g. there are many cities so 'city' doesn't take a capital letter. However there is only one London, therefore it takes a capital letter.
- ❑ When writing titles of works such as books, films or plays:
 - Capitalise the first word
 - Capitalise any main/important words
 - Don't capitalise minor words such as 'and', 'of' or 'the' e.g. The Sound of Music, The Wizard of Oz, Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire
- ❑ When writing speech:
 - ✓ Go to a new line when a different person speaks e.g. "Good morning" said the Headteacher.
 - "It's the afternoon!" replied the student.*
 - ✓ Each person's speech is marked with speech marks e.g. "Walk on the left" said Mr. Mathews.

Grammar

I am aware that I must use language that is appropriate to my reader.

- ❖ No slang that lesson was bangin'
- ❖ No informal language I'm gonna do my homework now
- ❖ Other things to consider:
 - ✓ I am clear about the purpose of this piece of writing
 - ✓ I know who my audience is
 - ✓ I will use a suitable layout and text type

Punctuation

The Apostrophe

There are two main reasons why we use apostrophes: for possession and to replace a letter or letters

Note: Apostrophes are NEVER used to denote plurals

Full stop	.	indicates that a sentence has finished
Comma	,	indicates a slight pause in a sentence, separates clauses in a complex sentence and items in a list
Question mark	?	goes at the end of a question
Exclamation mark	!	goes at the end of a dramatic sentence to show surprise or shock
Apostrophe	'	shows that letter(s) have been left out or indicates possession
Speech marks	" "	indicate direct speech, the exact words spoken or being quoted
Colon	:	introduces a list, a statement or a quote in a sentence
Semicolon	;	separates two sentences that are related and of equal importance
Dash / hyphen	-	separates extra information from the main clause by holding words apart
Brackets	()	can be used like dashes, they separate off extra information from the main clause
Ellipsis	...	to show a passage of time, to hook the reader in and create suspense

Apostrophe for Possession

(To show that something belongs to another)

If a single thing/person owns anything, add an apostrophe + 's'.

- The dog's bone
- The boy's homework
- Jones's bakery
- Yesterday's lesson

However, if it is plural (more than one), an apostrophe comes after the 's'.

- The dogs' bones
- The boys' homework
- Joneses' bakeries (lots of Jones families)
- Many websites' content is educational

There / their / they're

Note: special care must be taken over the use of there, their and they're as they sound the same but are used quite differently:

- ❖ There shows position Your seat is over there
- ❖ Their shows that 'they' own something Their blazers are navy blue
- ❖ They're is short for they are as in They're revising every day

ITS

Note: its, which shows that something owns something (like our, his etc), does not take an apostrophe: the dog ate its bone and we ate our dinner

Your / you're

Note: special care must be taken over the use of your and you're as they sound the same but are used quite differently:

- ❖ Your is possessive as in this is your pen
- ❖ You're is short for you are as in you're coming over to my house
