The aims of Wheatfield Primary School:

We aim to create a purposeful working environment where all children are encouraged to be positive about their learning and take a pride in their achievements and quality of work.

offer a broad and balanced curriculum which meets individual needs, stimulates the children's curiosity and which has an appropriate emphasis on literacy, numeracy and ICT.

help children develop lively enquiring minds, to question and discuss ideas rationally and to become confident, independent learners.

develop all children's confidence and self-esteem and to equip them with the skills to work together.

inspire positive attitudes and a sense of responsibility towards others in school, the local and wider community.

cultivate in all children a respect for moral, spiritual and cultural values and a tolerance and understanding of other races, religions and ways of life.

encourage children to care for their school and the environment in which they live.

value and encourage the active involvement of parents and carers in supporting the education of their children.
