

Our definition of Cultural Development at Packington Church of England Primary School

Cultural development is about us understanding our own culture and that of others both near and far so that we can follow the messages within the Bible to value others and live together in peace and harmony.

