

Lacewood Primary School

Admissions Policy

This policy explains Lacewood Primary Schools approach to admissions.

As a Local Authority School we adopt the Local Authority Admissions Policy and all applications for places at the school must be made via the Local Authority.

Admissions

For new starters to Nursery(F1) and Reception (F2) opportunities to look around school are offered and these may also offer opportunities to meet and talk to our Foundation Team.

For transfers from another school, once allocated a place by the Local Authority, parents are invited to look around school and meet the staff.

The school office is open from 8.00 am for parents wishing to speak to our Parent Support Advisor, Mrs Anson and from 8:15 for admin.

The school will monitor the attendance of any child who has attendance below 90% and a pattern
