

Useful Websites for Parents

www.mychild.co.uk (magazine, newsletter, free downloads for all curriculum areas, online shop)

www.parentscentre.gov.uk (general information about all aspects of parenting) www.parents.org.uk (all aspects of parenting, competitions) www.parentlineplus.org.uk (general information about all aspects of parenting and support) www.direct.gov.uk (general information for choosing schools and supporting learning) www.bdadyslexia.org.uk (information about dyslexia – online shop)

www.topmarks.co.uk (interactive games for most subject areas)

www.primarygames.co.uk (interactive games for maths and literacy) www.phonicsplay.co.uk (interactive games with letter sounds) www.readwriteinc.com (for children at the early stages of reading and writing – demonstration of how phonics is taught in school)

www.oup.com/oxed (ideas for books to have at home)

www.literacytrust.org.uk (information on developing reading skills – links to other websites) www.bbc.co.uk/raw (ideas for developing reading and writing at home)

www.rif.org.uk (reading: book reviews, competitions and quizzes)

www.bayard-magazines.co.uk (information on developing reading skills) www.teachingtables.co.uk (maths games – multiplication. Please note, a paid subscription is required to access these games) www.playkidsgames.com (general online games)

www.feelgoodfriends.com (online shop selling resources available to help younger children understand emotions and to boost self esteem)