

Further help, information and resources

Criminal record checks

UK residents

Please refer to further guidance from the DBS www.gov.uk/disclosure-barring-service-check/arranging-checks-as-an-employer

Overseas residents

Although not all countries provide this service, the Centre for Protection of National Infrastructure website includes details on the process to follow for countries that do: www.cpni.gov.uk/advice/Personnel-security1/Overseas-criminal-record-checks

Child protection resources

If you work with children and young people and are looking for child protection resources, visit the NSPCC's website at www.nspcc.org.uk or the NSPCC's and Children England's Safe Network site at www.safenetwork.org.uk

You will find more information about recognising the signs of abuse at different stages of a child's development at www.nspcc.org.uk/signsofabuse

Involving children in recruitment

See Action for Children's The Right Choice: Involving children and young people in recruitment and selection www.actionforchildren.org.uk/media/43263/the-right-choice.pdf

Learning resources

You will find out more about our range of child protection learning resources, including e-learning, training packs and toolkits at www.nspcc.org.uk/learningresources

Training courses and consultancy services

The NSPCC provides a range of training courses and consultancy services for anyone working to protect or safeguard children at www.nspcc.org.uk/trainingandconsultancy

Permission to work in the UK

Guidance can be found at www.gov.uk/check-job-applicant-right-to-work

Publications and other resources

The NSPCC also produces a range of publications and other resources for anyone working with children, young people and families at www.nspcc.org.uk/publications

Recruiting volunteers

Volunteering England provide information on recruiting volunteers at www.volunteering.org.uk

Resources for education professionals

The TES website provides free resources allowing education professionals to share and benefit from each other's resources and lesson plans in order to drive excellence in the education sector at www.tes.co.uk

Further support

If you are personally affected or concerned by any of the issues raised by this course, you may find these contact details helpful:

NSPCC

Free 24/7 helpline for adults worried about a child or needing advice and support

Tel: 0808 800 5000

Email: help@nspcc.org.uk

Website: www.nspcc.org.uk

ChildLine

Free 24/7 service for children and young people

Tel: 0800 1111

Website: www.childline.org.uk