

Hannah Jones (Assistant Head) - teacher at Rodney House School

I am teach at Rodney House School and am responsible for curriculum and assessment across school. Being on the Governing body enables me to have a greater understanding of the governance of a school and to work with people who see the school from different perspectives. It also provides the Governing body with a teacher's insight when it is required.