

Pupil Premium at Foxmoor

The following is the Pupil Premium Statement from the Department for Education (DfE)

"It is for schools to decide how the Pupil Premium, allocated to schools per FSM pupil, is spent, since they are best placed to assess what additional provision should be made for the individual pupils within their responsibility."

What is the Pupil Premium?

In April 2011 the government introduced the Pupil Premium Grant which is in addition to main school funding. This grant is intended to address the inequalities between children eligible for free school meals (FSM) and their wealthier peers, by ensuring that funding to tackle disadvantage reaches the pupils who need it most. The Pupil Premium is allocated direct to schools, is clearly identified in the school budget where its use is closely monitored. Schools have the discretion to decide how the Pupil Premium is spent, since they are best placed to assess what additional provision should be made for the individual pupils within their school.

The Pupil Premium at Foxmoor Primary

At Foxmoor Primary School we strive to ensure that all our pupils make the best possible progress whatever their circumstances or abilities. We identify and develop their strengths and support their weaknesses. To meet these aims we provide high quality teaching for all across a wide range of subjects, and additional intervention programmes for those pupils who, for a variety of reasons, find school work more challenging. We monitor the progress of every child on a regular basis and make every effort to ensure that each child achieves their potential. We recognise that it is our duty to ensure that no group of children are disadvantaged due to their gender, ethnic origin, family income or circumstances.

In 2015 - 15, Foxmoor received pupil premium grant of £39,440

It must be made clear that Pupil Premium is not the same as Special Educational Needs and the school has a clear strategy in place to make maximum use of this grant. Whilst Pupil Premium funding allows us to continue and expand our current provision- to monitor children's progress and to give additional support when needed, it can also be used in a variety of other ways to enrich a child's learning and development.

Funding may be put towards the cost of providing one or more of the following:

Targeted Intervention Groups (Maths / English support) By providing focussed teaching for small groups throughout the school we can ensure that children have good levels of numeracy, reading and writing. Their progress is monitored at all stages in order that they make sustained progress and achieve their potential. The grant also funds the work of additional teaching assistants who support children by working with intervention groups and/or individuals.

Enrichment of the curriculum and links to learning. At Foxmoor we firmly believe that children need many first hand experiences to enrich their learning and understand their world; to underpin this we arrange out of school visits, visitors to school and workshops. These are activities that enthuse and inspire children and motivate them to research and learn. Premium funding is used to subsidise the additional costs and ensure that all pupils have the opportunity to gain as much from this experience as possible. The school has a great music and sporting tradition and this funding is used to enable children to participate fully in the richness of our provision.

Assessment programme. All pupils' progress in reading, writing and maths is monitored on a regular basis and the pupils' results are scrutinised to identify those who are at risk of not achieving the required standard and those who need a more challenging programme.

Booster groups are also used in year 6 to accelerate pupils' progress and provide challenge for some pupils; the funding is also used to provide additional time for staff/Teaching Assistants to work with these individuals and small groups.

How do we measure the impact of this additional funding?

The governors and the school leaders monitor the impact of all interventions and expenditure to ensure 'value for money,' The school results are published in a document called RAISEonline and the pupils who are eligible for pupil Premium are identified as a special group. The attainment and progress of pupils who are entitled to free school meals are closely checked against those of pupils who are not entitled to free school meals, to ensure that they have not been disadvantaged by their circumstances. The results of these pupils at Foxmoor showed that there is no difference in attainment between the two groups and the overall rate of progress (achievement) of the pupil premium group is greater.
