

Report of the H.M. Inspector

The children behave well, and very creditable work has been done in the Upper Standards, which have been under the immediate care of the master. The attainments in the other classes are fair.

The room occupied by the Second Standard is not properly furnished, the ventilation of the offices is unsatisfactory and the playgrounds need attention. A glazed partition in the main room would be very useful.