

Report of the H.M. Inspector

This school continues to be admirably conducted by the Head-master and his staff. The work is thoroughly prepared and arranged with careful attention to detail. The scholars take increasing interest in their lesson. Good order is maintained. The singing is praiseworthy.