

Bexley Information, Advice and Support Service for
Special Educational Needs and Disabilities
(Parents, children and young people up to 25)

A special educational needs and disability information, advice and support service for parents/carers of a child with special educational needs or a disability, and children or young people up to the age of 25 with special educational needs or a disability.

Trained and experienced staff offer an impartial and confidential service via telephone, email and drop-ins in the community.

We can:

- provide advice about education law relating to special educational needs and disabilities
- support during the education health care needs assessment process
- give advice about SEN support in schools
- help you prepare for and support you at meetings (depending on availability)
- help with appeals to the Special Educational Needs and Disability Tribunal
- signpost to other sources of information and advice
