

KEEP CALM AND BE BRITISH!

Let's play a game of
'Put your hand up if.....'

Put your hand up if.....

- You have brown hair
- Wear glasses
- Have a brother or sister
- Like football
- Can speak another language
- You like swimming in the sea!
- Born in this country
- Know what you want to be when you're older

All these things help make up your personal identity.

So what else makes up your personal identity?

- Groups or clubs that you belong to.
- What your interests or talents are.
- What things are important to you.
- What your hopes are for the future.
- Which people are important to you.
- Your religion.
- The languages that you speak.
- Which country you are from.

What you value also makes up part of who you are.

Time for another game – Let's play 'Thumbs up, Thumbs down'

We have talked about personal values, but can a country have values?

We all live in Britain, what do you think British values are?

- democracy
 - the rule of law
 - individual liberty
 - mutual respect
 - tolerance of those of different faiths
and beliefs

Democracy

Britain is a democracy – this means that the people in Britain vote for the people who make the laws and decide how the country is run. If we didn't have a democracy, just one person might be able to make all the laws and that would not be fair.

At King William Street we show Democracy

because we have contributed our ideas to the design of our spiritual garden.

we organised a non-uniform day for Brighter Futures Appeal and raised £300:86.

we have a say in what we learn because we are asked by our teachers for our ideas.

The rule of law

In Britain we have a police force who enforce the law and make sure people do not do the wrong thing and break the law.

At King William Street we show The rule of the law
because

our peer mediators help us to keep the rules.

we understand the consequences of breaking our class and school rules.

we learn about rules and the law in our assemblies.

Individual Liberty

In Britain, as long as we do not break the law, we can live as we choose to and have our own opinions about things.

At King William Street we show Individual Liberty
because we are able to choose whether we would like to attend

after school activities.

Brilliant Beginnings allow us to choose what and how we would like to present our findings on a topic theme.

we have the freedom to challenge ourselves in our learning by choosing Do It, Use It or Own It.

Mutual Respect

We might not always agree with other people, but we try to show respect for their thoughts and feelings.

We can give respect to others and we can expect other people to show us respect.

At King William Street we show Mutual Respect
because

as learning partners we learn together and help each other.

in our outdoor games sessions with Mario, we learn about 'fair play.'

we are an anti-bullying and a dyslexia friendly school.

Tolerance of those of different faiths and beliefs

In Britain we accept that other people might have different beliefs than ours and they may believe in different religions.

At King William Street we show Tolerance of those of different faiths and beliefs because our school has children from different faiths and we like that.

some of our topics help us to learn about different cultures.

in our RE lessons children sometimes explain what it like to be a Hindu or a Muslim.
