Useful Websites

CyberSMART – KS2

<http://www.cybersmart.gov.au/>

(A good resource that also contains an interesting interactive E-Safety quiz)

Bizzikid – KS1 and KS2

<http://www.bizzikid.co.uk/>

Digizen – UKS2

<http://www.digizen.org/>

(Includes an interesting activity on setting-up safe profiles on Social Networking sites)

Chat Danger – UKS2

<http://www.chatdanger.com/>

(Using email, text, IMS safely – possibly aimed at secondary school children – use selectively)

KidSMART – KS2 (Y4+)

<http://www.kidsmart.org.uk/>

Range of topics (some more unusual sections, file sharing, digital footprints, etc.). Useful website.

KnowITAll - KS1 / LKS2

<http://www.childnet.com/kia/>

Contains a series of new videos discussing aspects of E-Safety. Appealing for the younger children.

ThinkUknow – KS1 + KS2

<http://www.thinkuknow.co.uk/>

Contains the 'Hector's World' videos that are quite useful for KS1. KS2 has the interactive 'Cyber Café' section of the website that covers a wide range of topics relating to E-Safety

Get Safe Online – UKS2

<https://www.getsafeonline.org/>

Website aimed mainly at adults but has some useful places to start discussions for older children (e.g. staying safe while playing online games).

Microsoft – Online gaming: Help kids play safe – UKS2

<http://www.microsoft.com/en-gb/security/family-safety/gaming-about.aspx>

Again, a website aimed at adults but useful for generating discussion with older children

BBC - Learning Zone – KS2

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/apps/ift/learningzone/clips/>

Search website for “e-safety”. You’ll find lots of videos to generate discussions on e-safety (online bullying, file sharing, etc.).
