Admissions to the School

Since the recent amendments to admission procedures for schools, the governing body at Hoylandswaine Primary School have been able to offer full-time provision for the whole school year to children aged 4 on 31st August, or part-time or delayed starting if required. We are only able to offer the part-time option for mornings only. All applications for places at the school must go through the Local Authority admissions team, who will be able to advise on procedures.
