About Me

Born and raised in Doncaster, where I attended Danum School, swimming for Doncaster and playing basketball for Danum Eagles. Studied at Leeds Metropolitan University going on to work in America coaching sport. Moved to London 6 years ago to train as a teacher, returning to Doncaster with my wife and son Alfie. I am a very keen skier and love going to new places and meeting interesting people.

What makes me happy

Playing any kind of sport or any outdoor activities, e.g. skiing, kayaking, and climbing. Reading books and playing my guitar. Spending time with my wife and son especially going on exciting trips and holidays.
