

STUNNING START:

The children will use drama and a range of sources to explore life in Brighton during 1914. They will gain an understanding of European geography at this point in history and the struggles for power within the continent. Through role play War will be declared and the children will enlist for service.

RE & PSHE:

Can I Identify and describe similarities and differences in religious practices and lifestyles both within and between religions.

Can I understand how others in an unfamiliar situation may be feeling and how I can help them to feel valued and welcomed?

MATHEMATICS :

- Food rationing: measurements, ratio and proportions, budgeting
- Trench construction: measures, shape and space
- Journeys around Edwardian Brighton: measure and calculation methods

ENGLISH PROJECTS:

- Narrative – letters to the front line: formal language, adjectival phrases
- Persuasion – enlistment posters: propaganda, adverbial phrases
- Discussion – conscientious objectors: balanced arguments, generalisers, connecting adverbials

BRIGHTON AND THE GREAT WAR

HISTORY:

- Can I seek out and analyse a wide range of evidence in order to justify claims about the past?
- Can I show an awareness of the concept of propaganda and how historians must understand the social context of evidence studied?
- Can I identify continuity and change in the history of the locality of the school?
- Can I describe the characteristic features of the past, including ideas, beliefs, attitudes and experiences of men, women and children?
- Can I use dates and terms accurately in describing events?

SCIENCE AND THE ARTS:

- Can I analyse and give views on the effectiveness of different geographical representations of a location?
- Can I identify and name the basic parts of a simple electrical circuit, including cells, wires, bulbs, switches and buzzers?
- Can I find patterns between the pitch of a sound and features of the object that produced it?
- Can I design and create a silk postcard using textiles and a range of techniques?

EDUCATIONAL VISIT:

The Royal Pavilion: its role in World War I.

Brighton Sea Front: investigating how this area has changed since WWI.

Chattri: investigating the role of Indian soldiers in WW1