Friday 10th November Newsletter 2017

Dear Parents/Carers,

Next week we will be holding our annual Anti-bullying week where a range of activities will be taking place all week in assemblies and in class. To launch the week we will be holding an 'Odd Socks Day' on Monday 13th November. This is a day co-ordinated by the Anti Bullying Alliance and is to raise awareness as well as providing an opportunity for children to express themselves and celebrate individuality.

Holiday Homework October 2017: I am unique!

Thank you to all the parents who helped and encouraged the children with their holiday homework. We had a real treat in assembly this morning looking at many of the pieces, it was so very difficult to choose just one winner from each class.

There was such a variety of fantastic things about our children to recognise and celebrate, thank you very much for sharing these with the school. We will be putting as many as we can on the school website.
