This totals to a fantastic £501.49. Well done to all those involved.

You should be very proud!

Eco-Warriors out and about

On Thursday November 16th, the Key Stage 2 Eco Warriors went to Soar Valley for an Eco schools event. As part of the morning, they carried out exciting activities, learning about our environment. Our Eco Warriors did us proud, showed excellent behaviour and taking part in the activities with interest. They contributed by asking very good questions and offering correct answers and suggestions. We came away with a number of items as gifts including; a certificate, two science games and two pots of herbs! All in all a fantastic and educational day for all!

E-safety week

Technology is part of all our lives; it can enhance and support your child's education and offer a wide variety of exciting opportunities. It is important that your child accesses the digital world in a safe and supportive manner.

- As Parents there are many things you can do to protect your children when they are online:
- Set clear boundaries for your children when they are online.
- Talk to your child about the sites they visit and what they do when they are online.
- Make sure you know their passwords and you can access their profiles.
- Make use of safe search settings on google and YouTube to prevent your children from viewing inappropriate content.
- Promote the positive use of social media platforms, such as following an interest or the school Twitter or Facebook page.
- Many children also access group chat through their games consoles.
- Both the NSPCC and CEOP have resources for Parents about e-safety. Further information can be collected from either Office.

Useful websites to support discussion with your child are
