

Extended Services Explained

Aireborough Extended Services is the partnership of schools and services working across Rawdon, Yeadon and Guiseley. It aims to ensure that every child, young person and family living in these areas can access activities, guidance, information and support services that can enable them to achieve their full potential. Our services include providing parental advice, strategies and support for families in the area. We also provide positive activities and clubs for children and young people as well as a counselling service.

We also offer a programme of group work covering parenting skills, confidence building and personal development, as well as providing a range of affordable activities during holiday periods and other out of school hours.

If you want to find out more about the support available from Extended Services you can contact us in a range of ways:

Benefit Changes On the Way

Significant changes are being made to the benefits and tax credits system over the next few years because of the Welfare Reform Act 2012 which became law on 8 March 2012. Some of the provisions of the Act have already taken effect but others are scheduled for 2013. Some of the benefits changing this year include:

Child Benefit Tax Credits	Council Tax Benefits Housing Benefits	Social Fund
------------------------------	--	-------------

If you are worried about the effects that the changes to the benefits system will have on your personal situation, we recommend that you discuss this with an expert benefits adviser. For more information contact:

- Department for Work and Pensions - www.dwp.gov.uk
- Jobcentre Plus - www.jobseekers.direct.gov.uk
- Your local One Stop Centre – to find your closest visit www.leeds.gov.uk/onestopcentres
- For any specific enquiries relating to Council Tax or Housing Benefit please visit www.leeds.gov.uk/benefits or call Leeds City Council Contact Centre on 0113 222 4404

Aireborough Cluster Partnership is convening an Outcome Based Accountability Event on behalf of the outer NW to bring together partnership planning to respond to Poverty, Debt and Worklessness affecting families living in the Aireborough Cluster on 5th February 2013. A range of relevant stakeholders, services and professionals will attend this event. This will promote greater cross partnership working, awareness of support and services and identify gaps and initiatives to respond. The key actions will be highlighted in the next Newsletter in Summer 2013.

2013 Calendar of Events
