

Reading when you are in Key Stage 2 is all about enjoying books, building up stamina to read longer and more challenging texts, learning new vocabulary and understanding what you are reading.

There are old favourites on here as well as books that have just been published.

You can read these on your own or supported by an adult.

If you read one of the books on this list or a different title by one of the authors, you could write a book review, let your teacher know and/or add it to your book mark.
