

Barby C of E Primary School

Calculation Policy

For each of the following progressive stages of any calculation it is recommended to use concrete, pictorial and abstract to aid understanding.

Children will then move on to more formal understanding methods, that help them move successfully to using the efficient formal methods by when they leave at the end of year 6.