

Martin Impey Book Signing Thursday 8th February 2018

2nd February 2018

Dear Parent/Carer,

As part of our focus on reading we have arranged for Martin Impey to visit the school again.

On Thursday 8th February 2018 Martin will be with us for the day taking various workshops using his books 'Flo of the Somme' and 'A Song for Will'.

Martin has kindly agreed to stay after school to sign copies of his books which can be purchased online through the School Gateway.

Martin will sign copies of his books in the hall, after school, on Thursday 8th February 2018 at 3pm.

Please note that the books can be purchased online using your School Gateway account.

Yours sincerely,
