We received replies from 37 families.

Comments linked to the use of the school app / online payment system / homework are as follows -

- As some parents prefer not to receive communications on the school app, we will continue to also use email and paper copies.
- We are investigating the options for an online payment system.
- Regarding homework, while most parents appreciated the changes, suggestions included more open-ended project work, especially for the older children. I will feed these comments back to the teachers.

There were also written comments relating to the change of our school meals and these are being addressed with the provider.
