A little bit about me

I married my lovely husband Jack in Edinburgh in 2015. We are childhood sweethearts and have been together since we were 14 years of age. We have a gorgeous son called Charlie who was born on 4th March 2017 and he is the most perfect boy we could have ever imagined! We have a cat named Seth who can be very mischievous! We love to go out for family days out to the seaside, to the farm and I love to go shopping! I am lucky to live around the corner from my twin sister and my mum which enables us to spend lots of girlie time together as we are a very close family!

Fun Facts

I have my own dressing room in our house to fit all of my clothes in!

I eat a large bar of chocolate each night.

I can't and won't cook.

I have my hot water bottle every night- even in the Summer!

I am obsessed with cleaning!

My Hobbies

In my spare time my favourite thing to do is to get my pyjamas on, lay on the sofa, eat chocolate and watch a romantic film or read a romantic book! I love to go shopping- which I do far too often! I love days out with Jack and Charlie, my family and friends.
