

FERNE & RORY'S VET TALES SERIES 2 NEEDS YOU!

CBeebies Animal experts Ferne and Rory are back and ready to meet more children, more poorly pets and more fantastic vets from all over the UK! After a wonderful first series of Ferne & Rory's Vet Tales (which you can watch online here), we are now looking for applications for Series 2.

From a pregnant parrot to a snake with scurvy; an itchy iguana to a diabetic dog: if you know a child aged 4 – 7 years with a pet who needs the care of a vet, we want to hear from you! We want to help children understand that, just like us, animals get sick and can sometimes need a little help from the experts.

No animal is too big, too small, too loud or too hairy!

- We are looking for confident, chatty and outgoing children, aged 4 – 7 years, who have an adult family member also willing to take part in the filming.
- The pet doesn't need to be a house pet! It can be a farm animal, a nursery pet, or even an animal within the community, but the child must have a connection to the animal and the animal must have an existing condition.
- If selected, filming will be a maximum of 3 days at some point between May and October 2018.

IF YOU WANT TO APPLY YOU NEED TO...

1) GET PERMISSION

- All contact made with us must be from an adult and not a child.

2) FILL OUT THE ATTACHED APPLICATION FORM

- Your completed application form must include a recent photograph of the child and their pet. (please note that we will not be able to return any hard copies sent via a postal application)
- Applications can only be submitted by post or e-mail. E-mail your completed application form to vettales@bbc.co.uk or post it to the address below:
