

Star of the week!

Starlight Jacob for using a wide variety of words in the correct context.

Rainbow Eleanor for joining in PE Inclusion.

Wonderland Kiera for fantastic concentration in English integration during a writing assessment

Ocean Justine for walking so nicely around Endsleigh Garden Centre when visiting Santa and decorating her own Christmas tree independently!

Desert Island Ricky-Lee for spontaneous requests and independently completing work tasks.

Rainforest Holly for sorting animals onto pegs with no help.

Europe Matthew for coping really well with changes this week.

Africa Matthew for showing a mature attitude in letting a younger pupil choose first at dinner time

Asia Crystal for intensive interaction with a chosen adult; making great eye contact and responding vocally.

Australia Adam for being our very helpful sound technician in dance lessons.

America Jack for independent personal care, initiating leaving the bathroom without adult prompting

America Bryoni for making healthy drink choices at college.

Parent Pay News

- Please remember to inform school if your contact details change
- Please remember to keep your balances topped up for school lunches, Cookery and Trips
- A school lunch now costs £2.10
- We are hoping to offer payment for school uniform via Parent Pay in the near future—watch this space

Important:

Parents/Carers are very welcome to come into school. If you could let us know you are coming we can ensure those who you wish to see are in school. Also, if collecting a child, please be aware that all visitors, including parents/carers, must be escorted whilst in the school building for safeguarding reasons.

Hero!

A big WOW goes to Haydn for being a hero in his community and helping the ambulance to find a lady in distress. Such initiative and courage shown by such a gentleman.

Thank You Haydn you are a credit to Mill Ford School
