Dear Parents,

What a busy week it has been!

All Year 6 breathed an enormous sigh of relief on Thursday as they finished their final day of tests. The children showed every one of our core values throughout the week working incredibly hard to show all their learning. We are proud of each and every one of you, you persevered and showed great maturity. As a well done we will be taking you all to Cream's to celebrate your hard work. Year 6 can now really enjoy their final term of primary school, enjoying the rest of their learning and school life.

As you may imagine (and may have heard, if you live within the village) the whole school have been frantically practising their dances and the pageant ready for Saturday. The forecast is currently good, we are hoping the sun will shine on us!

We are meeting at the Church car park at 10.45, ready to begin our procession into school down Hurstwood Road. The Marshalls will alert the teachers, who are in charge of the children, when the road has been temporarily closed for the children to walk down and into the school.

Celebrate May Day

The school will be open on Monday 21st May as usual. We were granted an extra day in lieu last year due to it being 150 years of Bredhurst School.

Boys wearing white smock shirts will need to wear school trousers or grey shorts.

May I take this opportunity to thank all involved in the May Day preparations for all their help and commitment, it is a massive event to undertake, taking comprehensive planning and time. It does ensure we have much needed funds which support all the children's education.

It is with regret that the swimming pool continues to be out of action, we are still awaiting a part, due to the age of the boiler this has been very difficult to source. We are hoping the pool will be up and running immediately after the half term, an alert will be sent out towards the end of the half term to keep you informed.

The children all enjoyed seeing the exotic animals from Zoolab on Wednesday and many were very brave in handling them too!

Next week we have the Medway park visit to look forward to for all of Hurstwood, Kemsley and Oakwood classes. Could all children please be dropped off at Medway park, younger siblings may be dropped off before or after and will not be counted as late for that morning. Children need to arrive in appropriate sports wear.

I know all the children are looking forward to their Royal tea party this afternoon and the weather looks set to be lovely for Saturday too!

I look forward to seeing you all tomorrow!

Best Wishes

Michelle Cox
