

Privacy Notice for Governors

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals working with the school and residence in a voluntary capacity, including governors.

We, Kings Mill School and Residence, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Our data protection officer is Andrea Rounding (see contact details below).

The categories of information that we collect, hold and share include:

- personal information (such as name, address, contact details)
- recruitment checks
- evidence of qualifications
- employment details
- information about business and pecuniary interests
- special categories of data including characteristics information such as gender, race, ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation and political opinions.
- disability and access requirements
- medical information
- photographs

Why we collect and use this information

The purpose of processing this data is to support the school and residence to:

- establish and maintain effective governance
- meet statutory obligations for publishing and sharing governors' details
- facilitate safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils
- undertake equalities monitoring
- ensure that appropriate access arrangements can be provided for those who require them.

The lawful basis on which we use this information

We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we process data where:

- the data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes
- we need to comply with a legal obligation
- we need to perform an official task in the public interest
- we need to protect the vital interests of the individual (or someone else's interests) including where the individual is physically or legally incapable of giving consent

Where we have obtained consent to use your personal data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make clear when we ask for consent and explain how consent can be withdrawn.

Collecting this information

Whilst the majority of the information you provide to us is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this.

How we store this data

Personal data is stored in accordance with our data protection policy.

We maintain a file to store personal information about all governors. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your work with the school and residence.

When your relationship with the school and residence has ended, we will retain and dispose of your personal information in accordance with the Information and Records Management Society's toolkit for schools.

The Information and Records Management Society's toolkit can be accessed at https://c.ymcdn.com/sites/irms.site-ym.com/resource/collection/8BCEF755-0353-4F66-9877-CCDA4BFEEAC4/2016_IRMS_Toolkit_for_Schools_v5_Master.pdf

Data Sharing

We do not share information about you with any third party without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) we may share personal information about you with:

- Government departments or agencies – to meet our legal obligations to share information about governors

- The local authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information, such as details of governors
- Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for, such as governor support
- Professional advisers and consultants
- The Department for Education (DfE)

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, individuals have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information contact either the school admin team or our data protection officer.
