The lawful basis we rely on for processing pupil information

Roos C E (V C) Primary School is acting in the public interest when providing an education. We collect and use pupil information as we have a legal obligation under the Education Act 1996 and Regulation 5 of The Education (information about individual pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

Processing of special categories of personal data is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, for example data collection by the DFE under the Education act 1996; this information can be found in the census guide documents on the following website:

<https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>

Where pupil information is held with your consent (for example photos) this will be made clear and consent can be withdrawn at any point.

Our lawful basis for processing is therefore based on law or consent.

Collecting this information

Whilst the majority of child looked after information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing pupil data

Personal data relating to pupils is stored securely in line with the schools Data Protection policy and retention schedules. Special Educational needs or Child Protection information is forwarded to any subsequent school that the child attends.

Who we share pupil information with

Department for Education (DFE) – We share children in need and children looked after data with the Department on a statutory basis, under Section 83 of the Children’s Act 1989, Section 7 of the Young People’s Act 2008 and also under Section 3 of the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

This data sharing helps to develop national policies, manage Local Authority performance, administer and allocate funding and identify and encourage good practice.

We do not share information about our children in need or children looked after with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share data with other third party data processors to allow us to perform tasks within school more efficiently and effectively. Where we do this it will always be in accordance with our data protection policies.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information about Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supportinginformation>

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.
