Employee Information

Model School Data Protection Policy

St Anne's Catholic Primary School, A Voluntary Academy collects and uses personal information about staff, students, parents or carers and other individuals who come into contact with the school. This information is gathered in order to enable it to provide education and other associated functions. In addition, there may be a legal requirement to collect and use information to ensure that the school complies with its statutory obligations.

Schools have a duty to be registered, as Data Controllers, with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) detailing the information held and its use. These details are then available on the ICO's website. Schools also have a duty to issue a Fair Processing Notice to all students/parents or carers, this summarises the information held on students, why it is held and the other parties to whom it may be passed on.

Purpose

This policy is intended to ensure that personal information is dealt with correctly and securely and in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998, the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) when this replaces the DPA, and other related legislation. It will apply to information regardless of the way it is collected, used, recorded, stored and destroyed, and irrespective of whether it is held in paper files or electronically.

All staff involved with the collection, processing and disclosure of personal data will be aware of their duties and responsibilities by adhering to these guidelines.

What is Personal Information?

Personal information or data is defined as data which relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data, or other information held.

Why do we collect and use employee information?

We collect and use employee information under the Data Protection Act 1998 (DPA) and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) when this replaces the DPA.

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

Under the GDPR Personal Data may be shared without a Data Subject's consent where one of the following lawful processing conditions set out in Article 6(1) is met:

- 6(1)(a) – Consent of the data subject
- 6(1)(b) – Processing is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject or to take steps to enter into a contract
- 6(1)(c) – Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation
- 6(1)(d) – Processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of a data subject or another person
- 6(1)(e) – Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller

The GDPR refers to sensitive personal data as special categories of data and the conditions for special categories of data are set out in Article 9(2)

Conditions for special categories of data

- 9(2)(a) – Explicit consent of the data subject, unless reliance on consent is prohibited by EU or Member State law
- 9(2)(b) – Processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement
- 9(2)(c) – Processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of a data subject or another individual where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent
- 9(2)(d) – Processing carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes) and provided there is no disclosure to a third party without consent
- 9(2)(e) – Processing relates to personal data manifestly made public by the data subject
- 9(2)(f) – Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or where courts are acting in their judicial capacity
- 9(2)(g) – Processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest on the basis of Union or Member State law which is proportionate to the aim pursued and which contains appropriate safeguards
- 9(2)(h) – Processing is necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupational medicine, for assessing the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or management of health or social care systems and services on the basis of Union or Member State law or a contract with a health professional
- 9(2)(i) – Processing is necessary for reasons of public interest in the area of public health, such as protecting against serious cross-border threats to health or ensuring high standards of healthcare and of medicinal products or medical devices
- 9(2)(j) – Processing is necessary for archiving purposes in the public interest, or scientific and historical research purposes or statistical purposes in accordance with Article 89(1)
