

The Mediterranean

Where is the Mediterranean?

The Mediterranean countries are those that surround the Mediterranean Sea. Twenty sovereign countries in Southern Europe, the Levant and North Africa regions border the Mediterranean, in addition to two island nations completely located in it (Malta and Cyprus).

What are Lines of Latitude and Longitude?

- Lines of latitude and longitude are invisible lines on a globe that people use to get around (Navigation).
- Lines of Latitude go Across the globe.
- Lines of Longitude go down the globe.
- We use lines of latitude and longitude to give us co-ordinates to find new locations or help us if we are lost.
