Dear Parents and Carers,

As you are aware, on Wednesday 4th July the School will be having a transition day where all children move up to their corresponding classes. On this day we would like the Zebra children to attend all day (8:45-3:15). The children will therefore need to bring a packed lunch and drink to School. We feel this is important as they need to spend time with their new classes and teachers. If your child is not attending our Reception classes, please can you speak to either myself or a member of the Nursery team, to see what we can arrange. Once again, we will be finalising class lists very shortly and you will all be duly informed as soon as possible.

Many thanks for your anticipated support with this matter.

Kindest Regards,

Mr. Travers

Assistant Headteacher & Early Years Leader.
