

Teacher

Permanent

Start Date: September 2018

Closing Date: 16th July 2018 @ noon

Salary – Teacher Main

SEN allowance £2,085 - £4,116

An excellent opportunity has arisen at our lead outstanding school in Oxford that caters for, educates and nurtures children with Social, Emotional and Mental Health difficulties (SEMH).

This is an exciting position that will suit a relevantly experienced and qualified teacher who has a passion for educating children with special needs.

Prior to applying, please consider the following.

Are you:

- An experienced, qualified and effective teacher?
- Committed to meeting all the requirements for safeguarding children?
- Organised and a good communicator?
- Committed to inclusion?
- Creative and inspirational?
- Committed to developing yourself and others?
- Friendly, hardworking and motivated?
- Willing to learn and progress your own professional development?
- Hard working, assertive, resilient and dedicated?

Can you:

- Work under pressure when faced with challenging behaviours?
- Sustain the highest levels of quality?
- Show resilience in both mentally and physically demanding situations?
- Demonstrate high levels of passion and energy?
- Share ideas and expertise?
- Work in a supportive team?
- Detach yourself from personal or inappropriate pupil comments?

To Apply

Please write a letter, along with a completed application form to the Headteacher, explaining why you think you are the right candidate for this role.

We would be very keen to hear from those with experience of leading whole-school initiatives and co-ordinating subject areas.

Please return your application and letter by email to: jobs@northernhouse.org.uk & hbarstow@northernhouse.org.uk by 12pm Monday 16th July 2018. Interviews will be held week commencing 16th July 2018.