

We will not disclose any personal data about children to third parties without parental consent unless we are obliged by law or it is in the best interest of the child. By accepting this Home-School agreement you also confirm your explicit consent for the school to hold your child's personal data and to share that data with the following third parties:

- Other schools (if your child is transferring there);
- Health authorities (to ensure children's health);
- Police and courts (where there are or may have been criminal activities);
- Social workers and support agencies (where there are or may be safeguarding issues);
- Kirklees Council and The Department for Education (when required);
- External providers of data processing, information technology, virtual learning and assessment systems (to support you and your child in school, including, but not limited to Rm Integris G2, ffT Aspire, Parent Pay, PASS, Testbase, 2 Simple, Education City and mymaths).

For more information, please see our Data Protection Policy and Privacy Notices on our website or contact Mr White who is the Data Protection Officer at the school.

Our Golden Rules

Do be gentle – do not hurt anybody.
Do be kind and helpful – Do not hurt people's feelings.

Do work hard – Do not waste your or other people's time.

Do look after property - Do not waste or damage things.

Do listen to people and follow instructions – Do not interrupt.

Do be honest – Do not cover up the truth.

I hereby agree to the Home-School Agreement and give explicit consent regarding the sharing of my child's personal data.

Signed:
For the school

For the home

Child

Date _____

Home-School Agreement

Welcome to our school. We believe that a close partnership between home and school is very important. With support from home and school, children are able to make the most of their opportunities and feel safe, happy and successful at school. This Home-School Agreement is part of our partnership with you.