

Our Eco school's poster competition

For our competition the children had to create a poster that encouraged others to recycle plastic items and/or let people know about the problems of plastic in the oceans.

There was a prize of a toy turtle for each year group but all entrants got a little something for their marvellous posters.

Please look carefully at the entries and read the facts. Hopefully they will help encourage you to care for our planet and particularly our oceans.

