

Millwood school council

The pupils' of Millwood have a voice through the Student Council.

The pupil council of Millwood is represented by one or two children from each class.

The Pupil Council discusses different topics, such as charities to donate to during fundraising activities in the school, things that they would like to be able to take part in at school and new equipment they would like to have at the school.

