Confessions - . St. Agnes' Saturday 10-30 – 11am

Baptism: Next Sunday in St. Agnes' we will celebrate at 1.00pm the baptism of Noah Brennan, son and first child of Natalie and Chris. Please keep them in your prayer this week..

St. Agnes External considerable expense will be posted on our parish website for all to see, but with great savings WORK: Once the scaffolding is down [security], a report and photos of all the hard work accomplished (for years to come) at unavoidable, due to the sterling, dedicated service of our Buildings Manager [and family]. Then we proceed to organise further necessary expense and maintainance with internal scaffolding etc for upgrade of lighting and total repaint of church and ancillary rooms [sacristy etc] scheduled for August. This will inevitably entail possible re-jigging of weekday and even Sunday Mass arrangements, and all consequent understanding and patient tolerance of all. We have every confidence that parishioners can make the necessary adjustments with flexibility and not a little humour.

Afternoon Strawberry Tea. In aid of "Out of the Blues", a local MentaHealth Charity, will be held at Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Chopwell next Sunday 22nd July from 2.00pm to 5.00 pm. Tickets £5.00 each. Children under 10 free

St. Agnes Summer draw will take place after Mass this Sunday.

Schools:

- St. Agnes' School Leaver's will celebrate Wednesday Mass with us at 10.00am on 18th July in the parish at which we will also mark our appreciation to Mr. Tony Marron who is relinquishing the responsibility of being Chair of Governors and Mr. Geoff Laidler, the post of Head Teacher after truly remarkable, invaluable service to us all. We trust that our thanks will be mirrored in a great participation in our celebration of Mass by as many parishioners and colleagues as are able to attend.

- St. Agnes' outside Summer Festival begins at 1.15pm in the school grounds on Thursday, 19th July, followed by the school BBQ, beginning at 6.00pm.

St. Thomas More School Staff celebrate all the challenges and their achievements on our students' behalf in this past year, saying farewell to some and welcoming new colleagues in their Mass together at 4.00pm on Thursday, 19th July.

- St. Joseph's Year 6 will celebrate their Leaver's Mass on Friday, 20th July, at 10.00am in St. Barnabas', RG. Again, we pray as many as possible will join us in our celebration of this Mass.

St. Thomas More celebrate their end of term services on Friday, 20th July: 9.30-10.30am and 10.45-11.45am
ALL no doubt 'midst much laughter, hugs, and tears!

Sats Results: we offer well deserved congratulations to our Teachers, Pupils and Parents of both our Primary Schools for the excellent Sats Results accomplished this year. So much commitment, dedication and hard work has been rightly well rewarded.

Partnership Development Group The PDG met again on Thursday evening. Here are the highlights from the meeting which discussed the outcomes of the three open committee meetings:

Communications—agree to communicate as much information as possible in as many ways as possible.

Strategy—a good open and thoughtful meeting produced many ideas to explore. These will be taken to a meeting which will come up at proposals for future organisation of grouped parishes.

Youth—four young people met with some members of the PDG and other parishioners. They have agreed to form a Youth Action Group which will lead events for younger members of the communities and add to the PDG discussions.
